The St. Croix Central Girls basketball camp is a great way for any young basketball player to improve her skills in a fun and competitive environment. The camp is lead by varsity girls basketball coach, Luke Fritsche and his staff. Your daughter will also have the opportunity to work with members of the varsity basketball team. Each team member and coach is committed to making the camp a huge success for the campers. There will be an emphasis on all basic basketball fundamentals, which are the cornerstone to improving players and teams. Whether you're a serious player looking for ways to get better or are just learning the game, this camp is a must for all ladies interested in basketball.
